HOME OF THE MONTCO MUSTANGS

The Athletics program at Montco challenges you to be the best you can be—physically and academically. Montco has three intercollegiate men's teams, four intercollegiate women's teams and co-ed esports.

The Health Sciences Center is home to a state-of-the-art athletics facility where students are trained under the expertise of coaches with NCAA 4-year college playing and coaching experience. Montco's athletic teams compete at the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Division III intercollegiate level. In addition, the Mustangs compete as a member of the Eastern Pennsylvania Athletic Conference (EPAC) within Region XIX of the NJCAA National Junior College Athletic Association. Our esports program competes in the National Association of Collegiate Esports (NACE).

▶ The Montco Athletics Program is proudly sponsored by Under Armour.

"I chose Montco because I knew it would be a great opportunity for me to continue my academic and athletic career."

Amelia Diccio, Women's Basketball,
Spring-Ford Area High School

Welcome

WOMEN'S SOCCER

The Women's Soccer team is excited to continue to build on its success from the 2021 season.

SOFTBALL

The softball team is excited to continue to build on its success and looks forward to competing in Montco's future state-of-the-art outdoor athletics facility.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Women's Basketball continues to rise within the region. The program has a history of success and transferring students to 4-year institutions.

ESPORTS FOR ALL

Esports, or electronic sports, is a form of competitive multiplayer video gaming in which teams compete against each other in single games or tournament events. Esports provides an opportunity to redefine what it means to be a student-athlete, by engaging you on the digital playing field. The "Super Smash Bros. Ultimate" team captured its first title through the Philly Esports ACES league in 2021.

Games include:

- ▶ "Rocket League"
- ▶ "Super Smash Bros. Ultimate"
- ▶ "League of Legends"
- ▶ "Overwatch"
- ▶ "Heartstone"

KIRATIKA ARIYAMITR was one of 40 students across the country named a 2021 Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar by Diverse: Issues in Higher Education magazine. She is the only community college student and esports student-athlete to land a spot on the prestigious list.

“Playing esports was a completely new experience for me. We really came together as a team and now have skills we can apply in our sport and in life!”

– Linden VanWagonhoffer, esports-“Overwatch”
